Jefferson Parish spans from the southern shore of Lake Pontchartrain to the Gulf of Mexico and includes the area surrounding New Orleans. It offers travelers looking for an authentic Louisiana experience room to roam to discover delicious cuisine, outdoor recreation, and festive celebrations throughout the year. Below are some of the annual events in Jefferson Parish you should check out when planning your trip.

February & March

Family Gras

Outdoor concerts, Art Market shopping, and fun activities like face painting and interactive games at the Kids Court all take place at the free Family Gras in Jefferson Parish. This family-friendly Mardi Gras celebration lasts all weekend and of course, the Flambeau Food Court will be serving up all kinds of Louisiana cuisine favorites like jambalaya, po-boys, crawfish pasta, and gator-on-a-stick.

Metairie, LA 70003

Grand Isle International Tarpon Rodeo

Head to the Louisiana coast for the Grand Isle International Tarpon Rodeo, the oldest fishing tournament in the country. Held in the last weekend of July that includes a Sunday, the tournament (which has been around since 1928) features some of the best anglers around vying for the top prize in a range of categories by species, including hardhead catfish, redfish, and speckled trout. If you aren't competing, partake in the live music, contests, arts, crafts, and crab racing for the younger spectators that make this a favorite event in Jefferson Parish.
