Loews New Orleans

Discover true Big Easy spirit and Southern Hospitality at Loews New Orleans Hotel, where plush, luxurious accommodations meet genuine Loews services, fabulous food and jazzy cocktails. As they say here, Laissez Les Bon Temps Roule! (Let the Good Times Roll) at Loews New Orleans, rated Four Diamond by AAA and ideally located, with the best of the Crescent City just outside our front door. Stroll the historic cobblestoned streets of the French Quarter, take a horse and buggy ride past the French Market and hear the bells of St. Louis Cathedral toll on the hour. Hop on the St. Charles Avenue streetcar and marvel at the mansions of the Garden District. Jump on a riverboat and cruise the Mighty Mississippi on your very own New Orleans sightseeing tour. Stop into a jazz club and enjoy the sounds of a soothing saxophone from a future Grammy winner. Spend an afternoon in an ancient cemetery (really!) or at Pat O'Brien's singing along with the dueling pianos. Or immerse yourself in history at the National WWII museum.

Once you return to Loews New Orleans Hotel, you'll be treated to impeccable attention to detail and vibrant surroundings from the well appointed lobby to your oversized guest accommodations. With 285 rooms including 12 suites overlooking the Mississippi River, French Quarter or New Orleans Skyline, it's no wonder Loews New Orleans Hotel is rated as one of the best places to stay in the city.

With a sophisticated, yet un-intimidating style, the lobby is a hub of activity day or night. On Friday and Saturday evenings, guests enjoy live entertainment in the Lobby Lounge, a perfect warm-up to a fun filled evening on the town, or a quiet, romantic dinner in our own Cafe Adelaide, operated by the Commanders Palace Family of Restaurants. Cap off the perfect night with a signature cocktail masterfully shaken by one of the talented Bar Chefs at the Swizzle Stick Bar. No matter how you choose to spend your time here, every moment will be time spent wisely, and with flair.
