Baton Rouge Golf

BREC Golf runs seven East Baton Rouge golf courses that challenge every golfer, from the greenest novice to the most seasoned pro. BREC's golf facilities include pro shops, classrooms, concession areas and locker rooms.
Beaver Creek:

Located only 20 minutes from downtown Baton Rouge off of Highway 61 in Zachary, BREC's Beaver Creek Golf Club features an immense practice facility designed to help golfers improve every aspect of their game. The course includes a lighted driving range, a large putting green, and a short wedge chipping area.

Howell Park:

Baton Rouge Golf

Howell Park Golf Course features a short, parkland-style, 18-hole course measuring in at 5,700 yards. A canal crosses 10 holes of the course, making club selection extremely important, unless you enjoy fishing your ball from the water. Howell Park's layout is walker-friendly, and the pro shop offers pull carts and electric cart rentals.

J.S. Clark Park:

BREC's J.S. Clark Park Golf Course is the home of the First Tee of East Baton Rouge Parish, and is a very challenging and rewarding nine-hole golf course. Located near Dumas Memorial Golf Course in Baker, J.S. Clark offers versatility for young golfers combined with a fast, demanding pace of play for experienced players. The course also features a lighted driving range with grass, artificial hitting areas, and chipping and putting greens.

Historic City Park:

Located off I-10 and Dalrymple Drive, this 25 acre, nine-hole course is notable for its natural beauty, mature trees, lake vistas, small bayou, and “mountainous terrain.” Ground levels vary by as much as 25 feet.

Dumas:

Dumas Memorial Golf Course is located inside Greenwood Park at 13350 Hwy. 19 Baker. The course is approximately 15 miles north of downtown Baton Rouge and only five minutes from the Baton Rouge Metro Airport.

BREC’s Dumas Memorial 18-hole golf course measures 6,403 yards. The driving range next door at Clark Park is available for a pre-round warm up.

Santa Maria:

Baton Rouge Golf

Santa Maria Golf Course has regularly been awarded the highest ranking for a municipal course by Golf Digest. Conveniently located one mile off historic Highland Road near I-10.

Designed by Robert Trent Jones, Sr., the course is built on 150 acres of rolling terrain, featuring 15 lakes and two natural waterways, complete with sand bunkers, exquisite Bermuda fairways and mature oaks. The 18-hole course measures 6,969 yards in length from the championship tees. The Spanish-style clubhouse includes a pro shop, a full-service restaurant and a private conference/dining room and fitness center.

Webb:

The most popular of BREC's courses, Webb Memorial is an 18-hole course that measures 6,349 yards in length. Large oak trees line the fairways of this golf course that is ideally situated off of College Drive.

Webb features a fitness center, so you can improve your physique and golf game in the same place. There is a specially designed fitness area for golfers to work out, with plenty of equipment designed to strengthen and enhance your swing.
