The Stockade Bed and Breakfast

Whether you're traveling for business or pleasure, The Stockade Bed and Breakfast is not just another hotel, it's a home away from home. True to its Southern roots, you will experience the utmost of Southern hospitality in its truest forms at The Stockade!

Homemade breakfast daily, the most comfortable of beds, lounge areas in each of the rooms, and a common area that offers a view of Louisiana's bluffs that is sure to take your breath away will help you feel right at home.

Our luxurious rooms come in a few different styles. Whether you want to sleep like a king in our Rex Room or enjoy the romantic atmosphere of the Garden Room, we have a room to suit your needs or excite your senses and make you feel right at home. Enjoy a variety of packages that vary from a romantic night for two, to a simple weekend get-away for the girls, or simply create your own itinerary and tour Baton Rouge and the surrounding areas at your leisure.

Located right off the historic Highland Road, the house has five accommodations with en suite bathes and is included on the national Register of Historic Places. As soon as you walk into the house, you can feel the history of the Civil War and the years that have followed in the walls and halls.

Experience a relaxed environment that will make you feel at home. Let us welcome you into our family at The Stockade Bed and Breakfast and help make your visit to our capitol city one you will always remember.
